Sheet1

What the Board is seeking: An owner in good standing for the past three years. Or an interested non-owner with three plus years knowledge of The Courtyards. Ability to travel at your own expense or call into the meetings. Final determining factors: Ability to be open-minded, creative and pay attention to details. Willingness to accept tasks which may be long-term or short-term to help with the operation of The Courtyards as there are many items on our 'to do' list. An owner or interested non-owner who truly wants to keep The Courtyards as a well run and well-maintained timeshare condo property. Examples of, but not limited to, abilities that would be helpful: legal, accounting, construction, contracts, maintenance and project management.

NOTE: Voting takes place at the annual meeting in January.
